Notables Pay Tribute At Funeral for Dulles

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew led several hundred mourners yesterday in paying final respects to Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, who died Wednesday.

Agnew represented President Nixon at the services conducted by the Rev. Dr. Russel C. Stroup at the Georgetown Presbyterian Church.

Among those attending were former Ambassador Averell Harriman, former Defense secretaries, Robert S. McNamara and Neil McElroy and Secretary of State William P. Rogers. The present director of the CIA, Richard Helms, accompanied the widow, Clover Todd Dulles.

Mr. Dulles' remains were taken to Baltimore for interment.
